FIFA 22 is the result of years of research and development. It combines top-of-the-line physics, a new animation system that redefines the way players move, and a deep and authentic experience with the official clubs, leagues, players and stadiums of the world's best clubs. FIFA 22 introduces a whole new way to play. FIFA 22 introduces a whole new way to play. It combines top-of-the-line physics, a new animation system that redefines the way players move, and a deep and authentic experience with the official clubs, leagues, players and stadiums of the world's best clubs. How will players be able to tackle the game? FIFA 22 introduces the revolutionary Jump Intelligence, a game mechanic that enables you to alter the trajectory of your jump with the slightest touch of your foot. EA DICE developed the technology to provide a more accurate sense of momentum. Under-used muscles can be reactivated by simply tapping the muscles in the lower body before taking off. This new feature allows players to make quicker decisions, and to play with more freedom. FIFA 22 introduces a new animation system that redefines the way players move. By emulating real players in the way they move and the way they interact with the ball, players will see their movements become more natural and more expressive. New dribbling animations allow players to perform more intricate moves. On top of that, players will now be in full control of their body, allowing them to perform more precise and stylish passes, such as those performed by goalkeepers, defenders, strikers, and midfielders. bc9d6d6daa
