Microsoft had announced the Surface Book at the end of 2014. This is because Microsoft's ambition was to combine a notebook with a detachable convertible device, in other words a mobile PC and a tablet. In order to succeed, Microsoft needed to design a device which was innovative, attractive, functional and would carve a niche for itself. By the time of the announcement in 2014, the product had been in development for more than five years. Microsoft had done hundreds of experiments and kept refining the product. This was the prototype of the successor, Surface Book, which would be unveiled to the world in October 2016 and go into production the following year. A lot of work was done behind the scenes in less than five years from the announcement to the launch of the product. How many other companies can say that? Microsoft Surface Book is the right product to meet the problems of the past few years, when Apple delivered the iPad and Google's tablet dominated the market. To some, the iPad Air was the most technologically advanced product in the market. However, since that product was designed in Apple's factories, it was too expensive to start selling in the market. Some retailers would not carry Apple products because they could not cope with Apple's price. Apple's products were simply too expensive, especially when compared with the 'innovative and original products' of Google's and Asus. Microsoft Surface Book aims to solve these problems. Many large manufacturers of mobile products started to use the Microsoft Surface trademark. Brands such as Lenovo, Dell, Panasonic and Sony have started using Microsoft Surface, which proves that Microsoft has the right to use the brand, and is the supplier of the right product. Microsoft Lumia 950 Microsoft Lumia 950, the successor of the Lumia 940, was launched to the market with the number of complaints about the camera. Not only the photographers, but even the celebrities found the Lumia camera to be a bit disappointing. Fortunately, after the launch of Lumia 950, Microsoft released Lumia 1020, which is regarded as the most advanced smartphone camera ever. c9d1549cdd
