Firstly, we have the following screen: We can freely customize the character's appearance by selecting 3 options for male, female, minstrel, and gladiator. Then, once we have decided our gender and chosen our appearance, we are asked to choose a class. If we are leveling up a new class, the starting class, building, and items that we use will be given to us. But, if we are upgrading an existing class to a higher level, the starting class, building, and items will be removed and we will start as a class with a higher maximum level, making it impossible to go below the class cap. With the number keys, you can adjust your character's stance, hand positioning, attack, and special attacks. (b) Attacks: This is where we can charge our special attacks. It will cycle through the 4 elements of fire, water, wind, and earth. (c) Buildings: This is where we can build various buildings, upgrade our skills, prepare for a battle, increase our maximum level, and so on. (d) Items: This is where you can equip items and weapons. In the left part, there are 6 weapon slots that you can use. For our left hand, we can use a shield or a weapon. In addition, we can use a ring or a dagger for our right hand. The right part has 10 potion slots that we can use, and in the upper part, we can equip armor. You can see that the equipment categories are divided into the following 2 categories: Strength and Dexterity. Strength and Dexterity are basically the physical and magical stats of your character.
