The studio is planning the movie for 2019. Henry Cavill will once again play the role, which he first took on in 2013's Man Of Steel. Katherine Langford, who starred alongside Michael B Jordan in the upcoming Warner Bros film Blindspotting, is also set to star in the movie. Jordan will also return to star in the film, which is being directed by Godzilla's Gareth Edwards. "What a pleasure it is to come back to work with Henry, Ben, [Langford], everyone," said Edwards. "It's a privilege to bring Superman to life in this new dimension. "Building on what we learned with the other iterations of this character, I think audiences are going to find a deeper, more emotional truth in this version of Superman, and an extreme physicality that truly embodies the Man of Steel." Overseas box office takings were a record $721m last year, with the current Superman movie on course to smash that. The film is expected to be released in the UK by the end of the year.
