when the ncaa football 14 team was working on the project, we started to brainstorm how we could recreate the best parts of ncaa football like the vibrant espn logo and the welcoming scorebug in the latest ncaa football game. so we took the challenge and decided to make the ncaa football scorebug like the one used in the game, with a catchy tune. the result was the nba live style scorebug. after the presentation of the game, we received very positive feedback. the new experience was an instant hit, and the community spread the word. so we decided to continue with the improvements, and improve the experience further. now the ncaa football 2015 & 16 logos and scorebug are available as pre-packaged assets for you to use in your mods. the ncaa football in the year 2030 will feature an exciting european and international league. therefore, the ncaa football development team decided to put a lot of effort into this project. the result is the ncaa football 2020 graphics engine. now, the ncaa football 2020 graphics engine is fully operational and is also available for ncaa football 2019! (as well as for ncaa football 2018 and ncaa football 2017). all that's left to create an exciting, fun and realistic football experience is a ncaa football skin and a new edition of ncaa football '09 in 2020.
