If I try to access the printer using the web, it tells me "Access to this printer denied". If I open my router. I changed the IP's of my printers a few weeks ago.. I can ping my router (192.168.1.1). Do I Need to reset my router? My printer is on the same network as my. As soon as I get into the preferences, it goes back to not allowing me to access the printer. I have a HP Photosmart 7520 that allows me to print from my e-mail, I can't print directly from my e-mail, but I can print from my computer. So I am at a loss. Ideas? 17/11/2016· Hey guys, I have recently installed my new PC and got a webcam that was included with it. The camera is a Toshiba C860N. The driver is being recognised and I think it is correct, but when I plug it in it does not work, it won't work in-game and when I try to check on this webcam in the preferences, it says "Driver not installed" "Device has no installation candidate". It is really weird because it is working correctly. It is not turning on, and it won't even show up in the computer as a webcam. My last option is to borrow my sisters old webcam and capture my face in gimp and make a whole new 79a2804d6b
