She explained that the eyelash extensions were made with premium quality eyelashes. She showed me two different types of eyelashes: one that looked like very natural lashes, and one that looked very fake. When I asked her about the thickness of the lashes, she told me that the lashes were very natural in appearance. I think it was around the second eyelash from the top that the glue started to move a little. This is the only time that I have seen the glue move. She assured me that the glue was going to adhere to the lashes and not move. I got the natural lashes and left the store. I looked in the mirror in the store and was really impressed with the lashes that I had.
